2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Montfort prepares its consolidated condensed interim financial statements ("financial statements") in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires that management exercise judgment in applying Montfort's accounting policies.

Basis of presentation

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments, which are measured at fair value. All amounts are expressed in Canadian dollars unless otherwise stated.

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Company obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated on consolidation. These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and the following subsidiaries in the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2024:

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)Significant accounting judgements and estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

Estimates and assumptions are continuously evaluated and are based on management's experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcomes can differ from these estimates.

Goodwill arising from business acquisitions is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if specific events or circumstances dictate that the carrying amount of the asset group may not be fully recoverable. Management makes assumptions and estimates in determining the recoverable amount of its assets and groups of CGUs' goodwill, including significant key assumptions relating to revenue growth (driven by loan portfolio growth assumptions) and discount rates. In addition, assumptions are required pertaining to expenses, cash flows and operating margins.

The directors and management have considered and assessed reasonably possible changes for other key assumptions and have not identified any instances that could cause the carrying amount of the CGUs to exceed its recoverable amount.

Loans receivable are reviewed on a quarterly basis as to their collectability and an appropriate impairment charge is provided where considered necessary. The Company estimates an expected credit loss on a quarterly basis by reviewing the underlying loan portfolio. The allowance represents the Company's estimate of the expected credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio, net of the future income stream belonging to the holders of the co-investment agreements. In addition, the Company also completes a loan specific analysis to assess whether there are indications of impairment. The Company reviews a variety of factors such as maintenance of loan repayments in accordance with the contractual obligations, general economic conditions, the underlying stability of the company to which the loan was granted and has periodic discussions with the management of each company. The Company then makes an assessment using this information on whether or not the loan is impaired.

Changes in these estimates and assessments may have a material impact on these consolidated financial statements. Other significant areas of estimation uncertainty considered by management in preparing the consolidated financial statements are:

- Goodwill impairment;
- Variables used in determining expected credit losses (note 14);
- Estimated fair values of share-based payments awards (note 11);

Significant areas of judgment considered by management in preparing the consolidated financial statements are:

- Determination of control of entities, giving rise to the consolidation thereof; and
- Indicators of impairment of financial instruments, intangible assets and goodwill.

- Pivot specializes in asset-based private credit targeting mid-market borrowers in Canada. Sources of revenue include interest income from loans receivable, as well as income from the settlement of loans and transaction fees from due diligence. The Company manages private credit offerings through its five divisions and various loan types as follows:

Interest Only Loans

TIMIA, Brightpath and Nuvo offer Interest Only Loans that are designed for borrowers that anticipate achieving a financing milestone in the relatively near future. TIMIA's loans, typically two to five years in length, require the borrower to pay approximately two thirds of the interest monthly. The remainder of the interest is accrued over the term of the loan and is due and payable at the end of the term. Nuvo loans, typically two years in length, require interest only payments payable monthly with the principal due at the earlier of the demand date and maturity.

Amortized Loans

TIMIA offers Amortized Loans which are a type of growth capital provided to a company in which the timing of loan payments are tied to the forecast revenue of the company. Any unamortized amounts are due and payable at the end of the term.

4. LOANS RECEIVABLE (continued)Mortgages

Brightpath's mortgages consist of loans secured by residential property and are repayable monthly, with the principal balance due on maturity. Mortgages have a combination of fixed and variable rates of interest ranging between 7.7% and 22.4% and all mature within one year of origination. The weighted average effective interest rate of the portfolio as at June 30, 2024 was 15.47% (17.65% - December 31, 2023), which includes the effect of interest plus the effect of the lender fees earned on the portfolio. Included in accounts receivable is accrued interest on mortgages receivable of $5,498,997 ($4,748,616 - December 31, 2023).

Mortgage lender fees are charged to customers upon issuance of the loan and withheld from the principal funds forwarded to the customer. These fees make up part of the effective interest earned on the loans and as such are recognized into income over the life of the loan. As at June 30, 2024 there was $1,002,726 ($1,322,934 - December 31, 2023) of unrecognized lender fees on outstanding mortgage loans receivables which is netted against the receivable.

Term Loans and Factored Facilities

Pivot Financial provides Term Loan and Factored Facilities that are asset-based loans with fixed or determinable payments. Factored facilities earn administration fees up to 1.25% and are purchased with recourse. Term loans have generally fixed interest rates ranging from 12.7% - 17%, secured and range in maturity generally are due on demand or in a period less than one year.

Langhaus Loans

Langhaus loans to individuals and corporations. Rates of interest vary with positive or negative adjustments to interest rate bases, including bank prime, bankers' acceptance and others. At period end, $nil ($nil - December 31, 2023) of loans are carried at a fixed rate and $163,873,241 ($121,930,194 - December 31, 2023) are carried at a variable rate.

Within the Langhaus portfolio, $162,100,991 ($121,038,447 - December 31, 2023) or 128 (112 - December 31, 2022) loans, representing 98.9% of the value of the Langhaus portfolio, are secured by one or a combination of an assignment of life insurance policies, assignment of Cash Surrender Value (CSV), personal and/or corporate guarantees, pledge of cash held in trust, collateral mortgages, and/or general security agreements over the borrower's assets.

Within the portfolio, a loan of $891,747 is secured by a cash collateral formally pledged to Langhaus Financial Corporation ("LFC"). LFC will have discretion to invest the collateral funds for any provident purpose in its normal course of business. Should the LFC investment of these funds result in a reduction in the principal amount invested, Langhaus undertakes to make available the full amount of funds pledged. The amount of $893,534 is currently classified in other liability (note 10).

The full balance of Langhaus Speciality Finance Corporation ("LSFC") loans receivable of $880,502 or 2 loans are secured by a "put option" that allows the Group, in the event of default, to put the loan back to the seller or lender, as the case may be, and the corresponding debt is extinguished. Included in Promissory Notes and Other liabilities are $645,869 and $234,809 respectively, subject to this put option.

The Company periodically evaluates whether there are any indications of loan impairment due to a significant change in the expected timing or amount of future cash flows generated by the loan, including the realization of security. Management prepares a probability-weighted range of possible outcomes to arrive at an appropriate provision for expected credit losses.

7. INTANGIBLE ASSETS AND GOODWILL

Intangible assets were recognized by Montfort as part of the Pivot, Brightpath and Langhaus acquisitions. In the Pivot acquisition, the Company acquired a customer relationship and service contract. The customer relationship was subject to accelerated amortization in 2022 as a result of the acquisition of Brightpath.

The intangible asset acquired as part of the Brightpath acquisition included lender relationships which have a limited life and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the useful life, estimated to be approximately five years from acquisition. The intangible assets acquired as part of the Langhaus acquisition included a service contract and customer relationships with a limited life and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the useful life, estimated to be approximately one year and ten years, respectively. The useful lives of the customer relationships are linked to the life of the policies within each of the relationships.

Goodwill was acquired as part of the Pivot, Brightpath and Langhaus acquisition and is tested for impairment on an annual basis. The Company performs its annual test for impairment of goodwill in the fourth quarter. Assessment of impairment of goodwill and intangible assets is performed more frequently as specific events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset group may not be fully recoverable.

The recoverable amount of the CGUs were determined by a value in use calculation. Cash flow projections for a five year period were based on a one year financial budget approved by the Board of Directors. The Board approved budgets consider projected loan receivable growth based on past experience, capital sources available as well as market and economic conditions. The discounted cash flow models incorporate key assumptions related to revenue growth rate and discount rates. The forecasted revenue growth rates are based on the Company's expectation of future performance and the Company has set the terminal value to reflect a 2.0% growth rate for the present value calculation.

Discount rates applied to CGU's represent the Company's assessment of the risks specific to each CGU regarding the time value of money and individual risks of the underlying assets. Discount rates used were between 14.36% and 23.08% (2023 - 14.36% to 23.08%). The higher discount rates primarily reflect the cost of borrowing applicable to certain CGU's. Increases to discount rates could have the impact of reducing recoverable amounts.

The determination of fair values is sensitive to the above assumptions rates relating to revenue growth and discount rates. The risk premiums expected by market participants related to uncertainties about the industry and assumptions relating to future cash flows may differ, depending on economic conditions and other events. It is reasonably possible that future changes in assumptions may negatively impact future assessments of recoverable amounts for CGU's.

For the Brightpath CGU, a 12% change in the discount rate would result in an impairment of $983,000 and a 12% reduction in revenue forecasts would result in an impairment of $431,000. For the Langhaus CGU, a 3% change in the discount rate would result in an impairment of $2,017,000 and a 5% reduction in revenue forecasts would result in an impairment of $3,540,000. For the Pivot CGU, a 3% change in the discount rate would result in an impairment of $1,270,000 and a 5% change in the revenue forecasts would result in an impairment of $2,350,000.

(i) Loans payable

For all new loans payable, the initial term is set at one year. The lender has the option to extend while the Company also has the option to repay at any time, therefore all loans payable are classified as current liabilities.

The secured loans payable is a revolving credit facility from a senior lender and had a combined authorized limit of $60,000,000. On March 21, 2024, $50,000,000 of the $60,000,000 facility was repaid and the Company amended the revolving credit facility, decreasing the combined authorized limit to $32,750,000 and $3,000,000 USD. On August 2, 2024, subsequent to the end of the period, the Company entered into an amended agreement. Under the new agreement, the loan will mature on April 30, 2025 with an option to extend 1 year. The agreement includes covenants regarding reporting requirements, liens on account, distribution limitations and cash investment limits. The Company was in compliance with covenants related to the secured loans payable. The loan is designated as FVTPL to ensure measurement consistency with the credit risk associated with the related loan receivable that is security to the loan.

All other unsecured loans listed were subject to reporting total debt levels relative to permitted investments. For some of these loans, the Company was not in compliance with the covenant. All covenant breaches have been communicated to the lenders and they have not requested any change to the loans status as a result.

(ii) Loan facility

On March 21, 2024, Brightpath completed an initial draw on a new loan facility of $51,240,255. The loan facility is in the form of a senior secured revolving credit demand facility for the purpose of purchasing eligible mortgages. The Company incurred financing fees to obtain the loan facility, some of which were expensed as incurred and the remaining amount deferred and net against the loan value. The loan facility incurs interest equal to the adjusted daily compounded CORRA plus 5.00% per annum. The initial maximum principal that Brightpath can borrow under this agreement is $100,000,000, as such commitment may be increased from time to time up to an aggregate total of $200,000,000 upon the satisfaction of certain conditions. The debt for each individual mortgage is due on each mortgage settlement date. The loan facility is secured by mortgages held by Brightpath, granting the lender first priority lien on all collateral. The loan facility is guaranteed by a limited recourse and pledge agreement made by the Company. In addition, the Company has committed to providing to the lender a minimal annual rate of return. The value of the loan amount drawn as of June 30, 2024 was $44,470,425 and unaccrued deferred financing fees were $3,371,877. As at June 30, 2024 the balance was $41,098,548 ($nil - December 31, 2023).

14. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK (continued)

The estimated fair values of cash and accounts payable approximate their respective carrying values due to their nature and short terms to maturity. Investments are carried at their fair value. Loans receivable, accounts receivable, carried interest receivable and accounts payable are carried at amortized cost. Loans payable and other liability are split between amortized cost and FVTPL.

The fair value measurements use a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- (a) Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1);
- (b) Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2); and
- (c) Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorized in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment, considering factors specific to the asset or liability.

The following table presents the Company's financial instruments, measured at fair value on the consolidated statements of financial position and categorized into levels of the fair value hierarchy as at June 30, 2024:

	Balance at June 30, 2024	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Investments	$ 1,107,100	$ -	$ -	$ 1,107,100
Loans payable	10,000,000	-	-	10,000,000

Investments classified as Level 3 relate to shares held in private companies. Fair value of equity interests held is determined using a market approach. Management reviews financial results of underlying companies and uses recent equity transactions to value the investment. No change in methodology or fair value noted during the period.

Loans payable classified as Level 3 relate to variable interest debt from a third party. During the period ended June 30, 2024 no gains or losses were recognized in the statement of net income (loss) for changes in fair value related to the loans payable as there were no material movements in the fair value of the loans payable. Factors considered in determining the fair value of loans payable include changes to own credit risk as well as variable interest rate associated with this debt which did not have a significant impact on the fair value at June 30, 2024.

For information regarding the valuation of Other liability above refer to Note 10.

The investment operations of the Company's business involve the origination and purchase of loans receivable and the purchase and sale of securities, and accordingly, a portion of the Company's assets are currently composed of financial instruments. The use of financial instruments can expose the Company to several risks, a discussion of which is provided below.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company maintains sufficient cash balances to meet current working capital requirements. The Company is dependent on obtaining regular financings in order to continue as a going concern. Despite previous success in acquiring these financings, there is no guarantee of obtaining future financings. The Company's cash consists of cash deposited in business accounts held by high credit quality financial institutions. The following lists the contractual cash flows as of June 30, 2024:

	Carrying amount	Contractual cash flows	Within 1 year	Within 2 years	Within 5 years
Accounts payable	$ 5,251,786	$ 5,251,786	$ 5,251,786	$ -	-
Loans payable	390,935,282	411,990,961	343,503,349	5,047,221	63,440,392
Lease liability	1,431,060	46,974	46,974	-	-
Other liability	1,128,343	1,128,343	1,128,343	-	-
Total	$ 398,746,471	$ 418,418,065	$ 349,930,452	$ 5,047,221	$ 63,440,392

The following lists the contractual cash flows as of December 31, 2023:

	Carrying amount	Contractual cash flows	Within 1 year	Within 2 years	Within 5 years
Accounts payable	$ 7,375,530	$ 7,375,530	$ 7,375,530	$ -	-
Loans payable	351,371,311	358,817,322	337,135,530	6,368,340	15,313,452
Lease liability	1,622,232	1,939,834	453,790	405,842	1,080,202
Other liability	1,705,145	1,705,145	1,705,145	-	-
Total	$ 362,074,218	$ 369,837,831	$ 346,669,995	$ 6,774,182	$ 16,393,654

MONTFORT CAPITAL CORP.NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2024 AND 2023(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

14. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK (continued)Foreign exchange risk

The Company's foreign exchange risk is due to the Company's loan investments totaling US$9,453,974 ($18,420,309 - June 30, 2023) which are currently valued at $12,939,654 ($24,425,330 - June 30, 2023) and loans payable totaling US$12,315,343 ($13,161,744 - June 30, 2023) which are currently valued at $16,848,621 ($17,426,149 - June 30, 2023). A 10% movement in the US dollar exchange rate would increase/decrease foreign exchange gains/losses on the consolidated statement of net income (loss) by $391,636 ($696,234 - June 30, 2023).

Interest rate risk

The Company's exposure to interest rate risk arises from the interest rate impact on its cash, loans receivable as it relates to mortgages, and loans payable. The Company's practice has been to invest cash at floating rates of interest in order to maintain liquidity, while achieving a satisfactory return for shareholders. A 10% change in the interest rate would result in an increase or decrease in interest expense of $1,220,796 ($1,296,054 - June 30, 2023).

As of June 30, 2024, 2.3% (6.5% - December 31, 2023) of mortgage loans receivable bear interest at fixed rates and 97.7% of mortgages receivable bear interest at variable rates. The interest rate risk associated with variable rate mortgages receivable is mitigated by a minimum interest rate being the greater of the stated variable rate and fixed rate determined at mortgage origination for each respective variable rate mortgage loan receivable. 100% (100% - December 31, 2023) of loans in Nuvo's net asset value based loans and Langhaus' insurance policy-backed loans bear interest at variable rates. Changing interest rates may result in changes in interest income and expense for the variable rate mortgages and loans. The extent of the future impact on the market rates of interest and the corresponding effect on the fair value of the Company's mortgage and loan receivable could be significant. On a consolidated basis, a 10% change in interest rates would result in an increase or decrease in interest revenue of $1,220,796 ($1,577,042 - June 30, 2023).

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of, or future cash flows from the Company's financial instruments will significantly fluctuate due to changes in market prices. The value of financial instruments can be affected by changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and equity prices. The Company is exposed to market risk in trading its investments and unfavourable market conditions could result in dispositions of investments at less than favourable prices. Additionally, the Company adjusts its investments to fair value at the end of each reporting period. This process could result in significant write-downs of the Company's investments over one or more reporting periods, particularly during periods of overall market instability, which could have a significant unfavourable effect on the Company's financial position.

The Company manages market risk by having a portfolio of investments not singularly exposed to any one issuer. The Company also manages its market risk by reviewing individual equity movements, and the stock market to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of potential loss to the Company if the counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its cash, accounts receivable and loan receivables. The Company limits exposure to credit risk by maintaining its cash with financial institutions. Deposits held with these institutions may exceed the amount of insurance provided on such deposits. The Company's maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of cash, restricted cash, accounts receivable, forward contract and loans receivable.

14. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK (continued)Credit risk measurement

In monitoring credit risk, the Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its investees' financial condition. The evaluation considers delinquency trends, sales volumes and the investee's ability to maintain its financial condition. In accordance with IFRS 9, the Company calculates a provision for expected credit loss as outlined below.

Expected credit loss measurement

IFRS 9 outlines a 'three-stage' model for impairment based on changes in credit quality since initial recognition as summarized below:

- A financial instrument that is not credit-impaired on initial recognition is classified in 'Stage 1' and has its credit risk continuously monitored by the Company.
- If a significant increase in credit risk ('SICR') since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to 'Stage 2' but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired.
- If the financial instrument is credit-impaired, the financial instrument is then moved to 'Stage 3'.
- Financial instruments in Stage 1 have their ECL measured at an amount equal to the portion of lifetime expected credit losses that result from default events possible within the next 12 months. Instruments in Stages 2 or 3 have their ECL measured based on expected credit losses on a lifetime basis.

Calculating the ECL allowance involves a number of interrelated inputs and assumptions including probability of default, indications of SICR and collateral value. Key judgments relate to the estimated value of collateral, in the current macroeconomic environment.

The following diagram summarizes the impairment requirements under IFRS 9:

The Company assigns each financial instrument in the portfolio to a credit quality stage of Stage 1, Stage 2 or Stage 3. This credit quality staging is then used to calculate the lifetime ECL. The lifetime ECL is the maximum loss in default adjusted for the probability of loss. At each reporting period, the ECL is calculated for each loan receivable. The Company periodically reviews the ECL model to determine if industry trends or macro-economic factors have changed, causing a need to adjust the ECL model. The ECL - loans receivable recorded in the consolidated statement of net income (loss) is $320,376 as at June 30, 2024 (June 30, 2023 - $1,304,995) and ECL - accounts receivable recorded is $1,425,541 (June 30, 2023 - $nil).

MONTFORT CAPITAL CORP.NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2024 AND 2023(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

14. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND RISK (continued)Significant increase in credit risk (SICR)

The Company considers a financial instrument to have experienced a SICR when one or more of the following quantitative or qualitative criteria have been met:

- The investment is more than 30 days but less than 90 days in arrears on its contractual payment obligations;
- The Company's management believes the cash resources available to the investment may not be sufficient to meet ongoing needs; or
- The investment has significantly underperformed with respect to revenue growth and expense control.

A financial instrument is considered to be in stage 3 if:

- The borrower is 90 days past due on contractual payments;
- The borrower is in long-term forbearance;
- The borrower is insolvent; or
- The borrower is in material breach of financial covenants.

Expected credit loss model

The Company determines the lifetime expected credit loss to be the maximum loss in a default adjusted for the probability of loss. At each reporting period, the ECL is calculated for each accounts receivable and loan receivable.

The maximum default loss is a function of the relative exposure of the Company to a particular investment. The Company assesses this as a ratio of the enterprise value of the underlying entity to the amortized loan balance. Based on this ratio, the Company assigns the loan receivable to a maximum default loss band. Each band has a loss percentage based on historic experience.

The probability of default represents the likelihood that the borrower defaults on its financial obligation. As such it is dependent on the stage of the investment at the measurement date. An investment in stage 3 is in default by definition so the likelihood of default is 100%. Stage 1 and stage 2 credits are assigned default probabilities based on historic experience and an assessment of forward looking macro-economic trends. If Company management determines that a segment of the portfolio is facing macro-economic trends that differ from other investments in the portfolio, the probability of default will be adjusted accordingly for that segment.

The Company reviews the stage of each accounts receivable and loan receivable and recalculates the ECL every reporting period. Changes to the ECL are recognized on the consolidated statement of income (loss) in the period of the change.

Credit risk exposure

The Company's credit risk exposure by ECL staging is included in a table in Note 4.

15. MANAGEMENT OF CAPITAL

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to: a) identify and to invest in investments with strong cash-flow and long-term growth potential; b) to maintain financial strength, to protect its ability to meet its ongoing liabilities and to continue as a going concern and maintain creditworthiness; c) maximize returns for shareholders over the long-term. If the Company does not receive sufficient cash flows from its activities, it may have to undertake a private placement to cover its cash outflows.

The Company is subject to certain restrictions on its assets as described in Note 10. The Company's share capital is not subject to external restrictions. The capital of the Company comprises shareholders' equity, notes payable, debentures and co-investment obligations.

The Company manages and adjusts the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares or dispose of assets.

16. SEGMENT DISCLOSURES

Segments are identified on the same basis that is used internally to manage and to report performance, taking into account the services of each segment and the organizational structure of the Company. The Company's operations consist of the following reporting segments:

- Corporate Lending
- Consumer Lending
- Montfort Operations

The Company's Corporate Lending business consists of TIMIA, Pivot and Nuvo, which both provide corporate financing to small and medium sized enterprises. TIMIA Capital offers revenue-based investment to fast growing, business-to-business recurring revenue software businesses in North America and Pivot Financial, specializes in asset-based private credit targeting mid-market borrowers in Canada. Nuvo partners with both private equity and private debt funds to provide revolving net asset value based loans that help achieve the unique goals of the fund.

The Company's Consumer Lending business consists of Brightpath and Langhaus. Brightpath uses investor loans to administer first and second mortgages secured by residential properties within Canada and Langhaus provides insurance policy-backed loans to high-net-worth individuals and entrepreneurs in Canada.

Montfort Operations includes management of corporate borrowings and equity instruments, which fund a portion of the capital invested as well as operations. Certain corporate costs such as interest expense and salary allocations are allocated to each operating segment based on an internal framework.

The role of the "chief operating decision maker" with respect to resource allocation and performance assessment is embodied in the position of the Chief Executive Officer. The performance of the segments is measured on the basis of net income or loss before tax, and net assets, which is defined as total segment assets less total segment liabilities which is used as the basis of assessing the allocation of resources.
